

MARINE & NAVY ACES

Presented by the Northern California Friends of the American Fighter Aces Association

July 19th, 2009

The Hiller Aviation Museum

Located at the San Carlos Airport adjacent to Hwy 101
601 Skyway Rd, San Carlos CA 94070 (650)654-0200 www.hiller.org

Join us as we present our summer 2009 symposium, and meet these “Hellcat” and “Corsair” Pilots who accounted for over 32 destroyed enemy aircraft while flying during WWII. You also will have an opportunity to personally meet and hear the Aces share their experiences flying in the Pacific Theater of Operation (PTO).

ACES EXPECTED ON THE PANEL

- Col Dean Caswell - 7 victory Ace with VMF-221
- Capt Bob Coats - 9 victory Ace with VF-18, VF-17
- Lt Cdr Jim Duffy- 5 victory Ace with VF-15
- Capt Sheldon Hall - 6 victory Ace with VMF-213
- Ens Don McPherson - 5 victory Ace with VF-83

In addition to the Aces on the panel, we also expect a number of other Fighter Aces and Aviators to be present and participate in the day's events.

The Northern California Friends is associated with the American Fighter Aces Association and is a not-for-profit, all-volunteer organization. Our mission is to present the history of the American Fighter Pilot and Fighter Ace.
